

Carl-Peter Forster

Carl-Peter Forster is Chair of StoreDot Ltd, Vesuvius Plc, Chemring Plc and Kinexon GMBH. He is also Senior Independent Director at Babcock Plc and Non Executive Director at Energy Transition Partners BV.

He is former Non Executive Director at Energy Transition Partners BV. Senior Independent Director at IMI Plc and Chair of the Shareholder Committee of Hella GMBH, a German Tier 1 automotive supplier.

From 2013 until 2019 he has been a member of the Board of Gothenburg and Geely Automobile Holdings Ltd., Hong Kong as well as Chairman of The London Taxi Company. Various other board experiences include: Rexam Plc, London (2014 - 2016); The Mobility House, Zurich; Envisics Ltd., Milton-Keynes; ClearMotion Ltd., Boston; LeddarTech Ltd., Quebec; Lead Equities AG, Vienna, a small cap private equity fund management firm.

From 2001 until 2015 when the company was sold he served as Chairman of ZMDi AG, Dresden, a specialized semiconductor manufacturer.

Carl-Peter's former executive roles include: Group CEO of Tata Motors in Mumbai (including JaguarLandRover), 2010/11 and Member of the Board until 2012; President and CEO of General Motors Europe, Group Vice President of General Motors and Member of GM's Global Automotive Strategy Board from 2006-2009; President and COO of General Motors Europe 2004 - 2005; Adam Opel AG, Managing Director and Vice President of General Motors Europe 2001-2004;

Member of the Management Board of BMW AG, responsible for worldwide manufacturing (inclusive. Rover/Land Rover) 1999/2000; Managing Director BMW South Africa (Pty) Ltd 1996-1999;

1986- 1996 BMW AG, various positions in the engineering department, the last one as Vice President responsible for the development of the 5 Series BMW car line; 1982-1986 Management Consultant, later Engagement at Manager at McKinsey & Company.

He has Degrees in Economics and Aeronautical Engineering awarded separately by the Universities of Bonn and Munich.