

Dame Alison Carnwath

Dame Alison Carnwath currently sits as a board member of The EG Group including board membership at Asda Stores Ltd, EG Midco Ltd, BASF SE where she chairs the Audit Committee as she does at Zurich Insurance Group, an independent Director of PACCAR Inc., a Trustee of The Economist Group, and at LivingBridge, a primary private equity business where she now chairs their Strategic Advisory Board having chaired the management board and the investment committee over the past 20 years. She is also a director of Collier Capital, a private equity secondaries business and is a director of and chairs the audit committee of EG Group, a fuel retailing and convenience store business. She is a Founder Advisor to the Board Advisory Partnership Ltd and was closely involved in the creation and delivery of the Charing in Practice programme.

Alison's past directorships include Land Securities Plc which she chaired between 2008-2018; BP plc Man Group Plc; Friends Provident Group Plc; Barclays Plc; Gallaher Group Ltd, and National Power Plc. She is also a past Chairman of Vitec Group plc. She is a former member of the UK panel on Takeovers and Mergers.

In the not for profit sector, Alison is a member of the Advisory Council of the St George's Society of New York. She engages in a number of mentoring assignments both in the UK and overseas. Alison is a graduate and a chartered accountant and has two honorary doctorates.

Alison is also a senior Advisor of Evercore's strategic advisory business following the firm's acquisition of Lexicon, where she had worked as a Senior Advisor since 2005. Prior to that, she was a Managing Director of Donaldson Lufkin and Jenrette in their M&A department in New York. She was previously a Partner in the Phoenix Partnership, a corporate advisory and private equity business acquired by DLJ in 1997. Before joining the Phoenix Partnership in 1993, she was a Director of J. Henry Schroder Wagg & Co Ltd, the investment banking subsidiary of Schroders plc, specializing in advisory, merger, and defence work for leading UK companies. Alison was also a Founder Advisor in the creation of the Charing in Practice programme.