

Dame Sue Owen

Dame Sue Owen DCB is an economist with over 30 years' experience in government, including 14 at Treasury. She led the Department for Digital, Culture, Media & Sport (DCMS) from 2013-19, having also worked in the British Embassy Washington, No10, International Development and as Strategy Director General in Work & Pensions overseeing a £200bn budget. At DCMS she chaired the appointments panel for many roles including the chairs of the BBC, OfCom, Science Museum and CEOs of V&A and Tate.

Having retired from the civil service in 2019, she now chairs the Governors of the Royal Ballet, and is a non-executive Director at Pool Reinsurance Nuclear Ltd, Serco Group Plc, Pantheon International Plc, Methera Global Communications & Opera Holland Park, and a member of the supervisory Board of DAF NV. She is a part time specialist partner at Flint-Global.

Sue was the Civil Service Diversity and Inclusion champion, and speaks frequently on these issues. She is currently the designated champion for employee voice on the Board of Serco Plc.

Contact: damesueowen@gmail.com