

Lisa Thomas

Lisa has been evaluating board performance since 2011 as part of Independent Board Evaluation, an independent consultancy founded by Ffion Hague in 2008. Lisa has worked with the boards of major UK and overseas companies, public sector bodies and legal and accounting firms.

After graduating in Modern Languages from Oxford University, Lisa qualified as a solicitor with Frere Cholmeley Bischoff and subsequently practiced at Nabarro specialising in large infrastructure projects. Thereafter she held a senior in-house position in the legal team at Penguin Books Ltd with a broader commercial remit, before joining a management consultancy providing thought leadership and strategic advice to advisory firms.

Lisa has acted as an adviser to the Director of the Laura Ashley Family Foundation, as a member of the Maggie's Cancer Caring Centres' London Advisory Board, and as a trustee of KINOE, a charity providing education to street children in India and Nepal. She serves as a Vice President of the London Welsh Centre Trust.
