

Liz Airey

Liz chaired Jupiter Fund Management plc between 2014 until the spring 2020, having been a board member since 2010. Liz is currently Chairman, the Standard Life UK Smaller Companies Trust Plc and Chairman of the Rolls-Royce UK Pension Fund. She is also a non-executive Director of Kirk Lovegrove, the recently established energy advisory firm and a member of the Investment Committees of the ICAEW and of the RHS.

Prior to this, Liz was Senior Independent Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee of Tate & Lyle Plc and also of Dunedin Enterprise Investment Trust Plc. Previously, her roles have included chairing the Unilever UK Pension Fund, JP Morgan European Smaller Companies Trust PLC and Zetex Plc, a formerly listed manufacturer of specialist semi- conductors. Her first major non-executive role was in 1999, when she was appointed a Non-Executive Director of AMEC Plc, subsequently serving as Senior Independent Director until 2009.

In her earlier career, Liz was Finance Director of Monument Oil and Gas Plc, a listed oil and gas exploration company, a post she held until the sale of the company to Lasmo Plc.
