

Tim Score

Tim Score is Chairman at British Land and a Non-Executive Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee at Pearson. He is also a Non-Executive Director at HM Treasury, Chair of the Audit Committee of the Football Association and on the Board of the National Theatre.

Tim retired as Chief Financial Officer of ARM Holdings in June 2015, having been in the post for 13 years. Before joining ARM, Tim was Finance Director of Rebus Group Limited. He was previously Finance Director of William Baird Plc, Group Controller at LucasVarity Plc and Group Financial Controller at BTR Plc. He was also a Non-Executive Director of National Express from 2005 until 2014, having been appointed Senior Independent Director in 2009. Tim trained as a Chartered Accountant with Arthur Andersen.