

ANNETTE COURT

Annette Court has extensive experience in international general insurance with a strong consumer focus and technology background. Annette is Chair of WH Smith Plc and, she is also a SID at Sage Group. She is the former chair of Admiral Group and has been NED of various public company and private equity backed Boards.

She was the CEO of European General Insurance of Zurich Financial Services from 2007 until July 2010 and served as a member of its Group Executive Committee. She joined Zurich from RBS Insurance/ Direct Line Group where she was CEO and a member of the RBS Group Executive Management Committee from 2001.

Annette has a degree in engineering from Oxford University and subsequently worked at IBM in the banking and insurance sectors for 11 years. She also sits on the Advisory Board of Streetgames, a charity that helps disadvantaged young people and is a business Mentor for Merryck & Co.